Expect Hospital Building Work To Start Soon

Building Plans For Hospitals Are Presented

Joint Statement Is Issued For Both Hospitals In City

In a joint statement today, Roger W. Rowland, president of the Jameson Memorial hospital, and J. Preston Flaherty, president of the New Castle hospital, made known the plans for the construction of additions to the two hospitals.

Plans for the addition to the Jameson Memorial hospital have been completed and bids for construction will be opened February 9. If the bids are within the money available, actual construction will start in early spring.

New Castle Hospital

The general plan for the addition to the New Castle hospital has been completed and architects are now processing the detail of the various units of the new addition. Bids for construction will be asked upon the completion of the detail of the plans.

Speaking for the two hospitals the presidents said, "When the campaigns for public subscriptions were completed it was hoped that erection could start within a reasonable time."

"It was believed then that Federal aid would be available under the Hale-Burton Act. With this aid it was hoped to build such addition."

Motorists and pedestrians are still slithering and slipping around on the icy streets and highways today, no break occurring in the temperature to thaw off the ice which accumulated Sunday. Many motorists are not exercising proper precautions either, Pa. News notes, and many are driving too fast for conditions. If they had to make a sudden stop it would be impossible for them to do so on the icy streets and highways.

Pa. News has received a note stating that nine residents of Butz street took advantage of the ice on Sunday afternoon by hunting up their ice skates and putting them into use, having an enjoyable time.

New Castle and Lawrence county will play host to approximately 25 visiting pastors next week, when the Methodist of the district conduct a visitation evangelistic crusade. The pastors will come from the West Virginia and Pittsburgh districts. The effort will climax in a giant rally at the Cathedral on February 11.

"Be kind to dumb animals" was being observed by one district farmer on Monday as he drove through the downtown district. A small calf was being transported in a pick-up truck and the animal was piled up in burlap sacks to protect it from the biting winds. The animal seemed to appreciate the protection from the cold.

Some truckers about the county have come to grief in the ditch due to the icy condition of the local highways as it was noted on the Mt. Jackson road Monday night. A large truck with a heavy load had

Report Support For Sales Tax Proposal In Congress

By FELIX COTTEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Strong bi-partisan support exists in Congress today for a sales tax despite reports that President Truman has abandoned the idea of recommending such a levy.

When Congress gets down to considering higher taxes, a drive will be made to enact a sales tax even if the president opposes this action.

Still uncertain is whether, if Congress approves a sales levy, it will be imposed at the manufacturer's or retail level. But the majority of sales tax advocates seem to be leaning to a levy at the manufacturer's level.

Sentiment Is Divided

Sentiment in Congress on the sales tax question still is divided. A substantial group, chiefly Democrats from large urban centers, oppose any form of sales levy. The tax will have the support not merely of a large Republican-Southern Democratic coalition, but of some administration Democratic leaders.

House Majority Leader McCormack (D Mass.), said he felt the government's huge revenue needs require a sales tax at the manufacturer's level.

McCormack said: "I don't see how billions of dollars can be raised without resorting to something like that."

Can't Be Avoided

Rep. Halleck (R Ind.), a former majority leader, suggested a manufacturer's sales tax and said "I don't see how it can be avoided," adding:

"It is going to hurt. But there is no painless way in which the job can be done. We must follow as nearly as we can a pay-as-you-go policy on this rearmament program. But to get the money we must go to the nation's producers."

Chairman George (D Ga.) of the Senate Finance Committee would not commit himself. But he declared that a sales tax has no chance "unless the president gives it his full backing."

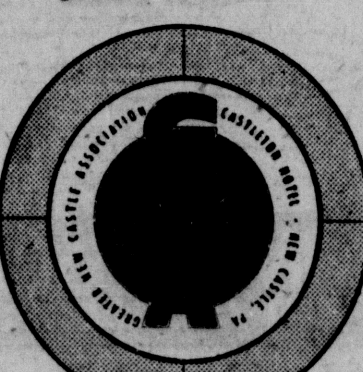

Rep. Eberhart (D Pa.), a Ways and Means member and long a sales tax opponent, said "a broadening of the number of things to which excises would be applied, while an evil, would not be as great an evil as a sales tax."

RAINBOW HAIRDOS?

BOSTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Rainbow hairdos for stylish gals in 1951 were predicted today at the trade and style show of the Massachusetts Cosmetologists Association.

The prediction came from hair stylist Thomas Colesant. He didn't call them rainbow hairdos but said brunettes will go in for reddish glints and blondes will accent their tresses with streaks of other tones.

U.N. Assembly Will Support U.S. Resolution

More Than Required Two Thirds To Vote China Is Aggressor

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Jan. 30.—The American resolution indicting Communist China for the Korean aggression approached a decision today at U. N. with 45 votes lined up in favor—five above the required two-thirds assembly majority.

The 60-member political committee is scheduled to touch off the final battle before the vote today. Russia, Poland and Syria—all opponents of the U. S. measure—are the remaining speakers.

For Final Action

The political committee, which was delayed from reaching a vote yesterday by a long list of speakers, is ready to transform itself immediately into a full plenary session of the assembly for final action on the winning resolution.

The security council meets this afternoon at Britain's request to remove the Chinese question from its agenda so as to leave the general assembly full freedom of action to deal with the issue.

Prospects for a majority vote on the Arab-Asia resolution faded after the United States accepted a compromise to its own plan giving continued peace overtures to Peiping priority over sanctions.

Seeks Seven Power Parley

Sir Benegal Rau, leader of the Asia-Arab bloc—which insists on a seven-power conference with Peiping for arranging a cease-fire in Korea and for a discussion of Formosa—failed to gain additional support despite his announcement that Chinese Communist Leader Mao Tse-tung informed New Delhi he will reject all U. N. peace overtures if Red China is branded an aggressor.

A number of delegates lukewarm in support of the U. S. resolution privately described Rau's announcement as a "faux pas" in that it "smelled" of a threat and a scare maneuver from Peiping.

President And French Premier Discuss Issues

Anti-Communist Policy Plans Being Made At Conference

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Truman and French Premier Plevin turned today to strategic plans for defense of Western Europe after pledging a continued all-out fight against Communist aggression in Asia.

The two world leaders resumed their two-day talks aimed at firming joint Franco-American anti-Communist policy, this morning.

Today's conferences are directed at achieving a complete meeting of minds on the policies to be pursued, and the roles both countries will play in the rapid building up of an integrated defense force for western Europe.

Insist On Speed

The United States is insisting on a rate of buildup far more rapid than had been envisioned earlier by the French government, and Mr. Truman will make it clear to the French leader the U. S. is prepared to give arms aid if the French will provide the manpower.

The U. S. is ready, too, to continue large-scale aid in helping to restore France's basic economy, but the president will express the view that France, in return for such aid, must give evidence

Stassen Forecasts Revolt In Russia If War Develops

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Harold E. Stassen declared last night that the Kremlin will face a counter-revolution in Russia if it opens all-out war.

Stassen, Republican leader and president of the University of Pennsylvania, addressed 300 graduates and friends of the university's Wharton School of Finance and Commerce. He said:

"It is possible that the Kremlin may make a move toward all-out war, but I think that will not happen. We now hear of tension and trouble inside the Kremlin."

CONGRESSMAN DIES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Rep. John B. Sullivan (D Mo.) died last night in Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md., of cerebral hemorrhage.

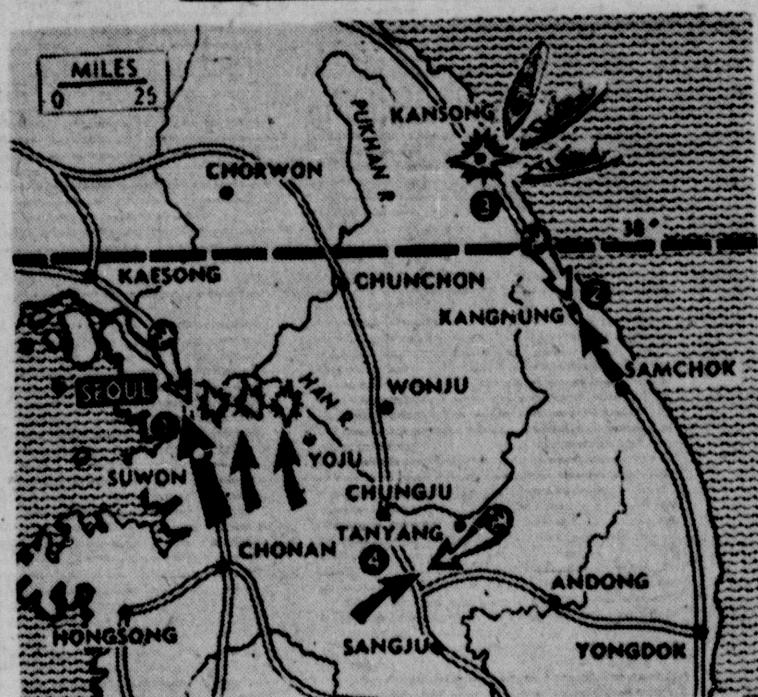

Sullivan was stricken at his Washington home and was rushed to the hospital, but doctors were unable to save his life.

Sullivan, 53, represented the 11th Missouri district (St. Louis) in the 77th, 79th and 81st Congresses. He was a member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

IT IS COLD IN CHICAGO TOO

CHICAGO—Prices and wages are frozen, and in Chicago the weather is freezing, too, with five below zero expected. Housewife, Virginia Mix waits for the bottle of milk to defrost so she can have cream in her morning coffee.

KOREA—United Nations spearheads rammed into the main Communist defense line below Seoul and gained only a few hundred yards against the heaviest opposition yet in their five day offensive. Allies inched forward on a line from Suwon (1) east to Yaju under cover of jet fighter-bombers which laid a fiery blanket (blast symbols) ahead of them. On the east coast, South Korean troops stabbed into Kangnung (2) as powerful naval task force led by the battleship Missouri devastated Kamsong (3) 48 miles northwest. Fifteen miles southwest of Tanyang (4) South Korean units cleaned up enemy guerrilla force of about 1300.

Expect Approval Of Wage Agreements Before 'Freeze'

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Federal wage control board is expected today to announce approval of pending new collective bargaining contracts in the first of a series of orders thawing the five-day-old pay freeze.

Chairman Cyrus S. Ching indicated the agency's initial directive would be of a "general" nature and apply to all bona fide agreements negotiated recently—the coal wage pact, the Hudson Motor company settlement, the Washington telephone contract and other agreements.

Reached Before Friday

These labor-management agreements were reached just prior to the announcement last Friday night of the wage freeze order and are scheduled to receive the O. K. of the nine-man wage stabilization unit.

At the same time, the tri-partite board—made up of three public, three industry and three labor members—is at work on a formula that will let other unions and companies now in contract talks know what settlements can be approved.

The formula is expected to allow increases of ten percent for the period dating back to January 1, 1950, or start of the Korean war last June. Officials said the exact date of the base period had not been decided.

Ten percent is the general pattern of increases reached in auto, steel, coal and other major industries and other workers probably will be permitted to "catch up" with this pattern.

Wildcat Walkouts Affect Railroads

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—A rail union spokesman said today that the wildcat walkouts tying up the Chicago and Detroit railroad terminals "are very likely to spread throughout the country."

The spokesman, a representative of the Brotherhood of Trainmen whose members have called in "sick" in the two mid-western cities, told newsmen rail workers throughout the nation are discontented with the lack of action on their wage demands.

He said back-to-work telegrams have been sent out by W. P. Kennedy, international president of the trainmen, to the idle switchmen and "everything is being done to get them back on the job."

Do Not Want To Draft Men Over 25

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—The Defense Department and Selective Service Director Hershey told Congress today that they do not want to draft men over 25 years old.

Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, assistant defense secretary for manpower, said men above the 19 through 25 age group, which is now being called up, are not as adaptable to military service as younger men.

Hershey asserted that the number of non-veteran single men 26 and above "is too small to be of practical value."

Resistance Of Enemy Grows In Seoul Area

Believe Chinese Reds Preparing For New Southward Drive

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, Jan. 30.—Allied troops gained up to three miles and shot patrols another six miles toward Seoul today as they plunged into the main Communist defenses below the South Korean capital and met violent resistance.

Brisk fighting flared along the entire 140-mile trans-penninsular front while warships and carrier planes blasted Kamsong on North Korea's east coast and Seoul's port of Inchon in the west.

One U. S. Eighth Army patrol in the battle-churned west sector darted to within eight miles south of Seoul, but the principal United Nations forces were held to much smaller gains by bitter enemy opposition.

Enemy Poised For Drive

In the central and eastern sectors, a huge mass of North Korean troops was poised for an expected southward push that might threaten the inland flank of the U. N. forces pressing their six-day-old drive toward Seoul.

For the second straight day Chinese artillery pounded United Nations positions nine miles northwest of Suwon.

Lt. Col. Bernard Peters of Park Falls, Wis., executive officer of an allied spearhead regiment, told International News Service War Correspondent Fred Waters:

"I think we have hit their main defense line. They are well dug in and determined to stay."

Chinese forces estimated an enemy division is manning the 40-mile western front.

Simultaneously, Red China was pouring fresh reinforcements and supplies in big convoys down through North Korea toward the erupting South Korean front. The airman saw at least 1,200 Red vehicles moving south early Tuesday.

An important funneling point for these enemy movements was wrecked when 11 U. N. warships, backed by the U. S. carrier USS Missouri, and waves of carrier planes bombed the northeast Korean coastal junction of Kamsong.

Allied mine sweepers cleared the waters off that port as the bombardment smashed up rail and highway bridges and other installations in the Kamsong area.

Shell Inchon Harbor

On the opposite side of the peninsula and 125 air miles southwest of Kamsong, three warships shelled Inchon's harbor works, rail yards and other facilities Tuesday for the fourth consecutive day.

This bombardment was spearheaded by the American heavy cruiser St. Paul, with her eight-inch guns, while the U. S. Destroyer Hank and the Canadian Destroyer Iroquois added their five-inch rifles to the attack.

In the center of the South Korean front, meantime, a relief column broke through a Communist ring to rescue a U. N. patrol encircled since Monday 10 miles above Yaju, which is 40 miles southeast of Seoul.

The surrounded patrol had been "fighting off two enemy battalions"

This isn't the weather for baseball, at least not in states in the north, so daily we hear the players, who now to prepare to set forth, for the land of the yam and the cotton, where sun sprinkled soft breezes flow, they're preparing to loosen their muscles and they don't do that here in the snow. Biloxi or Tampa or Tucson, the leaguers start getting away, or at least pretty soon they'll be going. It's 17 today.

'Prayer Cells' Meet Thursday

"Prayer cell" members and friends will assemble Thursday afternoon, Feb. 1, at two o'clock in Epworth Methodist church, East Washington at Butler, for a prayer retreat. The retreat is in preparation for the local observance of the World Day of Prayer at First Methodist church, North Jefferson at North, this city, Friday, Feb. 9.

A representative from each congregation should be present, as a business meeting will be conducted. New Castle United Council of Church Women, of which Mrs. J. F. Rentz is president, has planned both meetings.

Ecumenical Register
The total enrollment for the ecumenical register of Lawrence county is 2,508, the quota having been 1,500. The ecumenical register will be open until 1952.

National Council of Churches
The local United Council of Church Women is part of the agencies follow: Federal Council of Churches of Christ in the United States on November 28 at Cleveland, O. The other agencies follow: Federal Council of Churches, Foreign Missions Conference of North America, Home Missions Council of North America, International Council of Religious Education, Missionary Education Movement of the U. In spite of "the big snow" voting members, consultants and official visitors numbering more than 3,000 attended the meeting in Cleveland. Twenty-nine denominations, representing more than 31,000,000 members, were represented at the historic assembly.

Forming the new organization is of more importance than that of the World Council of Churches at Amsterdam, it is thought. The National Council is an organization for action.

U.N. ASSEMBLY WILL SUPPORT RESOLUTION

the Latin American bloc, pointedly ignored Rau by announcing its support of the U. S. resolution.

Will Veto for Measure
Mexican Representative Luis Padilla Nervo said he will vote for the measure because it provides means for a cease-fire and peaceful attainment of United Nations objectives in Korea. He added that he understands the resolution to involve no further military undertakings in the Far East.

Others swinging into line were France, Norway, Iceland, Lebanon, Belgium, The Netherlands, Denmark, Liberia, Colombia and Britain. The latter joined in support of the U. S. resolution after Lebanon introduced an amendment giving peace overtures priority over sanctions.

Rau insisted that the Arab-Asia resolution received precedence in the voting today and reiterated that approval of the U. S. measure would lead only to a third world war.

Without mentioning Mao by name, he stated:

"My government has been informed on the highest authority that once there has been a condemnation, there will be no hope of a peaceful settlement."

tions as would meet the needs of the community for some years to come.

"Negotiations were entered into, looking towards securing Federal aid, which was to be allocated through the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. By early 1950, negotiations had reached the point where it seemed probable we would get Federal aid.

"Nine million dollars were allocated to Pennsylvania for hospital aid and it was thought then this amount would be expanded to twenty millions. Instead, the nine millions have been cut to four and a half millions.

Wait No Longer
"Hospitals applying for this aid were classified as 'C'. In the 'C' classification, New Castle is listed twelfth and the appropriations have not yet been made to all 'B' classifications. Ahead of New Castle in the 'C' classification are a number of suburban hospitals in the Pittsburgh district.

"It now becomes apparent that no appropriations for New Castle will be possible for at least three years, a period we believe too long to further delay building operations.

"Jameson Memorial hospital has about $850,000 on hand in its building fund and the New Castle hospital about $400,000. These sums will not build the additions for which we had hoped.

The directors of the two hospitals have approached this problem from a standpoint of civic need. The money on hand will be used to do as much as is humanly possible in addition to the two hospitals with a view to providing New Castle with the finest hospital and nursing home facilities available."

for more than 24 hours, the Eighth Army said in a communique issued at 8 o'clock Tuesday night (6 a.m. EST).

The field headquarters bulletin said that "at last reports, the successful relief column was making its way back to friendly lines."

Fighting Below Seoul

During the day's fierce fighting in the west sector below Seoul, the communique related, "gains of two to three miles were made by certain regimental elements along the advancing front." However, the bulletin described most of the day's gains along the 40-mile-wide west sector as "limited" to distances of from 1,000 to 1,500 yards. The communique listed at least 1,600 communist casualties in the area below Seoul since Monday. Field advisers said the Eighth Army's casualties were higher Tuesday than on any other day since the crunching offensive toward Red-occupied Seoul began last Thursday.

The Eighth Army's latest announcement acknowledged "stiff resistance" six miles northwest of Suwon where 1,000 Chinese Reds were declared to have been killed or wounded.

Suwon, captured by the U. N. forces in the second day of the current drive, lies 17 air miles below Seoul. A front dispatch placed an allied patrol vanguard nine miles northwest of Suwon.

In the area west and northwest of Incheon, which is 31 miles southeast of Seoul, 300 Red soldiers were killed and 300 others wounded in an enemy counter-attack early Tuesday, the Eighth Army communique stated.

It said U. N. airmen observed an estimated two Communist battalions dug in at a point 11 miles northwest of Suwon.

Will Never Allow Unity Of Western World Disruption

—PREMIER PLEVEN

By ROBERT G. NIXON (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—French Premier Rene Pleven today pledged that his country "will never allow the unity of the western world to be disrupted—from within or without."

Pleven and President Truman conferred for the second straight day on means to combat world Communism with attention concentrated on plans for defending western Europe. The two leaders met at the White House for an hour and 45 minutes this morning.

The French premier later spoke at a National Press Club luncheon. In his speech, he pointed out that differences naturally may arise among the free nations, but he added:

"I do say—and I want this clearly understood by any group that may be plotting against us—that we will never allow these differences of opinion or disagreements to break or strain the ties that unite our two countries."

Cold weather of the past several days has affected auto parking receipts. Many drivers leave cars at home and ride the buses, which are chain equipped.

Highway Department Superintendent Alfred A. Martin again urged motorists today to use extreme caution in driving as very little can be done for the present condition which exists on county roads. Cinders placed on the roads are kicked aside by the first two or three cars using the road and the roads are just as dangerous as previously. The highways are covered with a heavy coating of ice and little relief is in sight to move the ice.

A miniature village is springing up on the Enon Valley-Mt. Jackson road in the vicinity of the Turnpike crossing it was observed by Pa Newc in a visit to that section Monday evening. Small buildings of all sizes are being erected for timekeeping and other clerical work. When the weather breaks, it is expected that that section of the country will be a bee hive of activity.

Increase Goal At Church Service

Some few months ago, a goal of 50 regular attendants at First Congregational church mid-week prayer service, was set by the pastor, Rev. Thomas J. Jones. The goal was reached, and it was an encouraging experience when extra chairs were carried in at the first of the Pre-Lenten services.

The theme for this Wednesday evening will be, "The Need Of A Spiritual Equivalent To Atomic Power." It has been stated that the mobilization and concentration of Prayer Force, was more powerful than the atom. This should be a definite challenge to the faith of the people of God. The goal of 75 has been set for the weekly prayer services in 1951.

through deeds that she will bear her full share of the creation of the North Atlantic community defense forces.

Today's policy talks were expected to dwell to some extent also on the question of arming western Germany, a proposal which has been opposed by France on the ground it might provoke an attack by Soviet Russia in western Europe.

In yesterday's talks, Mr. Truman and M. Pleven arrived at "fundamental agreement" on combatting Red aggression in the Far East.

The president told the French premier that the United States has no intention of pulling out of Korea, and intends pursuing the conflict against Red China in that arena until a free Korean republic is firmly reestablished.

Pleven, in turn, pledged that the French will continue their four-year fight against China-aided Communist rebel forces in Indo-China.

The president answered Pleven's appeal for additional U. S. arms aid for Indo-China with formation of a military and economic committee to explore thoroughly the arms supplies required by the 150,000 French troops in the colonial trouble spot.

Further U. S. aid for Indo-China is expected to be forthcoming speedily.

The two leaders met for an hour and three quarters this morning.

Pastor's Son Will Assist At Volant Church Services

Word has been received by the Rev. Harry A. Silvis, pastor of the Volant-White Chapel churches, that his son, the Rev. Merle Silvis, has been assigned to assist him in services in the Volant Methodist church next week.

He will be guest minister during the week of the United Evangelistic Advance which will be observed in the entire Erie Methodist Conference. The younger Rev. Silvis is pastor of the First Methodist church of Trafford, Pa., and is a member of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist church. He is a graduate of Thiel College, Greenville, Pa., and of Drew University, Madison, N. J.

Special services will be held beginning Sunday, February 4, at 11 a. m. and continue each evening at 7:30 with the final service Sunday evening, February 11. The visiting pastor will bring the message at each service.

Committees from both churches in the charge are busy preparing lists of prospective members and are making plans to personally invite them to attend these meetings. Rev. Harry Silvis has announced that no worship nor church school will be held at White Chapel February 4, as all will join in the Volant services.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

"That this Nation under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that Government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth"—Abraham Lincoln.

We wonder what Mr. Lincoln would think if he could see things as they are now. What is our Nation doing? Do we have the freedom that we once had? Is our country governed by the people and for the people, or shall we perish from the earth?

"I Now Get Amazing Relief from Monthly Female Pains" and nervous feelings several days before... by taking Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Believe me, it's no picnic to suffer distress from female functional monthly ailments such as headaches, backache and 'bearing-down' pains—at such times. What really got my goat was I'd feel so nervous, irritable and restless several days just before my period.

"A nurse who is a friend of mine suggested I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. And what an amazing medicine Lydia Pinkham's Compound is! It not only relieves this painful distress for me but also accompanying nervous tension and tired, weak feelings—of this nature. I take Pinkham's Compound every day now, because I find that this helps build up resistance against such female distress. It tastes swell in a little fruit juice! I do hope any girl or woman who suffers this way will give Pinkham's Compound a trial."

P.S. Or you may prefer Lydia E. Pinkham's TABLETS with added iron. Easy to carry in your purse.

Clark Speaks To Rotarians

Speaks On Value Of Volunteer Companies

R. G. Clark, vice president of the Pennsylvania Firemen's Association, and a member of the New Castle Fire Department, was the speaker at Monday noon's luncheon meeting of the New Castle Rotary club, addressing the club on the method of organization and value of the volunteer fire departments, particularly in the rural communities and the small boroughs.

Fighting fires, he explained, is not a one man job. It requires the cooperation of a number of men, and the necessary equipment. A volunteer fireman, he stated, is one who gives his time and services to help others when they are in need, regardless of the time, place, or who the other fellow may be.

Perform Various Services
In addition to fighting fires, most volunteer companies are also qualified to do first aid work and help out in various kinds of emergencies such as floods, drownings and disasters.

Their operations are covered by state laws, and they must be incorporated. They cannot have a name which is a duplicate of a previously chartered department.

Two methods of financing are employed. They can be financed by tax assessment, providing a majority of people in the community consent, or they can be financed by fund raising campaigns. Most volunteer departments use the latter method as it makes them independent of governmental agencies.

Two per cent of all premiums paid on fire insurance in the state, in which the companies hold charters outside Pennsylvania, goes to the fire departments in the state, on a pro-rata basis. Many of the fire companies use these funds to purchase group insurance to protect their members against injury in the line of duty, he stated.

Non-Profit Organizations
Volunteer fire departments are non-profit organizations and are just as good as the people in these communities wish them to be, he explained. They deserve the cooperation of all citizens, because one never knows when he will need their services.

A good women's auxiliary is a big help, as they can assist the department in many ways. Most companies build their own buildings, and own their own equipment, raising the money in various ways. Anyone can belong, and there is a place for almost everyone in the department, regardless of their station in life, he stated.

Quite a number of the members are men who make fire fighting a hobby, as it contains a certain amount of excitement and gives the men an opportunity to work off excess energy.

The fire police, who work with these volunteer companies, have the same authority as state police during a fire, and he advised that citizens take cognizance of this fact and cooperate with them, when a fire occurs.

They don't receive any pay and don't expect any, getting their satisfaction out of a deed well done, and more often receive criticism than praise, he stated in conclusion.

Most Victims Of Polio Aided By March Of Dimes

Four out of five people who come down with infantile paralysis require help in whole or in part from the March of Dimes.

During the last three years at least $58,000,000 in March of Dimes funds was expended by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for patient care and epidemic aid throughout the nation. The 1950 epidemic bill for such service came to some $25,000,000, of which $5,000,000 remains as a debt to be paid in 1951.

George C. Powers, Jr., Lawrence County March of Dimes Director, said the local unit had helped pay for care and treatment of 14 polio patients during 1950.

March of Dimes researchers are working toward a prevention or cure of polio; meanwhile, other March of Dimes money must go to the rescue of those families who face the tragic personal and financial crisis of infantile paralysis. The resulting care has largely eliminated deformities once resulting from inadequate treatment.

men and women from all parts of the state. Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Shamokin, Easton, New Castle, Harrisburg, Scranton, Chester, Lock Haven, Brockway, these and many other cities will be represented.

ROUND-UP CLUB TO FETE KIDDIES

Round-Up club members have planned a Valentine party for children, to be held on Thursday evening, February 8, at 7:30 o'clock, in the South Mill street club rooms.

These plans were made recently at a meeting held in the club rooms with Mrs. James Cople in charge. Those arranging the party include: Mrs. Thomas Maciarello, Mrs. James Cople, Mrs. Lou Colia, and Mrs. George Ross.

A talent show will be presented by the children, who are guests of their parents at this event. A Valentine exchange is being planned by secret pals.

Clogged Grate Causes Blaze

Firemen were called to the home of James Javannantonio, of 107½ East Reynolds street at 7:50 a.m. today, when soot, which had clogged an unused grate caught fire. Damage of around $5 resulted. Fire Chief H. F. Steinbrink reported.

At 2:15 p.m., Monday, firemen were summoned to the National Radiator Company plant, by an alarm from Box 414, when a small fire occurred in the foundry. Employees of the company department had the fire out before firemen arrived, it was stated.

Flogging in the United States Navy and merchant marine was discontinued in 1850; in the Army it was abolished in 1861.

New Reports Are Believed Part Of War Of Nerves

PARIS, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Diplomatic circles in Paris said today that they have received unconfirmed reports from Communist sources that Russia is prepared to offer France and Italy neutrality agreements if both countries quit the Atlantic pact.

The reports emanating from Communist circles in northern Italy and Austria said Moscow also is willing to offer sugar coated agreements assuring Italy and France expanded markets in eastern Europe and China if they comply.

French officials denied that Moscow made such an offer and consider the reports part of a war of nerves.

GRANGE NEWS

Liberty Grange No. 1780
Liberty Grange No. 1780 met for the regular meeting with a good attendance. Master John Turner conducted the business meeting. During the literary hour a program was presented, developing around the theme: "Thrift Week—A Stitch In Time Saves Nine". Participating in the program were ladies of the grange: Mabel Kneram, Genevieve Martin, Anne McCracken and Betty Doughton.

Comments on "The Value of a Budget—What Is Adequate Insurance?—Safe Investments—Means of Conserving Human Energy."

It was proven that if every family wasted one slice of bread a day it would take 470,000 acres of wheat to furnish flour for these slices. The social committee served refreshments. The committee for the last grange meeting in February is: Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Wimer, Mr. and Mrs. Don Turk, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Drake and William and Charles Peak.

City Hall News Briefs

Council reported out of committee Monday with a favorable report, a measure which when adopted will provide for a new "through" route through the city, which will connect Route 422 on the east with Route 422 on the west. It is anticipated that when the legal department makes a final check on properties involved the measure will be enacted into a city law next Monday. The new route may not be put through for some years.

Persons who make a business of hauling rubbish may procure their licenses for one dollar at the city health department. Milk licenses, for the same price, are also available there.

City council conferred informally in the engineer's office today relative to the new streets building which the city intends to build in Shenango street, at Bridge street, this year. The city sold the streets building in Taylor street recently, for $8,005. The sale price will be applied to paying for the new structure.

Although April is somewhat distant yet, it is anticipated that Richard I. Davis, health director of the city, will issue a request that all persons participate in the state's annual clean-up week. It is not known yet whether he will have the department of garbage collect tin cans. When such is done it delays the collection of garbage, which when piled up, perturbs residents.

It was reported in council yesterday by Solicitor Robert White that any member of the city force who belonged to the City Officials and Employees Retirement system has a right to take an appeal from the Lawrence county court decree which declared the system unconstitutional, and which also ordered the money distributed to the city which put in about $30,000, and also employees. Some employees would like to have their contributions returned. If no new pension system is arranged, they may try to obtain social security. Police and firemen have their own pension systems.

Doctor Signs Away Right To Amass Fortune In Money

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Dr. Hiram Benjamin, whose discovery of a blood plasma substitute made from a common garden vegetable gave him a chance to amass a fortune, has signed away his rights to the money in the interests of humanity and returned to his research.

Dr. John Hirschboeck, dean of Marquette University Medical School where Dr. Benjamin is a faculty member, disclosed last night that the scientist has turned over to the school his patents on a process for refining and purifying okra to make a plasma replacement.

Royalty payments—which Dr. Hirschboeck estimated might be as high as "several hundred thousand dollars a year"—will be used to finance research in basic science designed to alleviate human illness.

He said Dr. Benjamin's salary "is in the usual range of salary schedules for medical school instructors—from $5,000 to $8,000 a year."

Two other members of the five-man research team Dr. Benjamin directed—Dr. Harry Ithig and Darwin Kaestner—turned subsidiary patents on the process over to the school.

Dr. Benjamin explained: "No physician may make a profit on a discovery what would help humanity. That's just and fair and I, for one, wouldn't want it any other way."

He added that control of the patents by the medical school will assure rigid control of the plasma substitute's quality and distribution and keep the price low enough to make it available to all who need it.

The scientist said he is returning to research on the use of okra as a treatment for ulcers.

Ask Senators To Aid In Securing F.E.P.C. Law In State

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—U. S. Senators Edward Martin and James H. Duff were asked today to use their influence to secure passage of a Pennsylvania Fair Employment Practices law.

Clarence E. Pickett, chairman of the State Council for FEPC, told the two lawmakers in a letter that a state law would be necessary to cover large segments of Pennsylvania workers not affected by a federal proposal.

Pickett commended the two Senators recently in sponsoring a federal FEPC act.

"Therefore," Pickett said, "we respectfully ask your continued interest and cooperation on the state as well as the national level to secure the benefits of legislation that will remove employment discrimination based on race and creed from our midst."

Warn Against Filing Any Phoney Income Tax Return

By ROBERT CLARK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The government offered three words of advice today to anyone tempted to collect a fat refund check by filing a phoney income tax return—"don't try it."

The Internal Revenue Bureau admit it's possible—and fairly easy—to pick up a quick couple of hundred dollars by sending in a fictitious return.

But Treasury officials warn that almost everybody who has tried the easy money scheme ended up behind bars.

The apparent loophole in the withholding tax system results from the government's eagerness to mail refund checks to taxpayers as soon as possible.

Refunds are normally made before the return has been checked against records of taxes withheld by employers.

The Treasury explains there's a practical reason for this, as well as a desire to please the public. The law requires the government to pay six per cent interest on all refunds that aren't made within 30 days after the March 15 filing deadline.

Examining some 80 million returns takes many months, and the interest cost would be enormous if no checks were sent out until the job was finished.

Since the loss through false returns is very small, the government save money by getting the checks out in a hurry.

Fictitious returns are usually submitted with forged withholding tax statements, which are easy to obtain.

The phoney statements are filled out with the name of a non-existent employer and an amount, such as $500, of taxes supposedly withheld; then enough exemptions are claimed to cut the actual tax to $300, for instance.

Unless there is reason to suspect the return has been faked, the government mails the "taxpayer" a $200 refund. The fraud is not discovered until, perhaps many months later, the return is checked against records of withholding taxes paid in by employers.

Detention Home

Almost ready for occupancy, the new juvenile and detention home will be thrown open for public inspection within a short time. The county commissioners want the public to see what their money has erected and before Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Ross take over the new home an "open house" will be held.

TO COLLECT COSTS

Persons who have been involved with the law and have not paid the fines or costs assessed against them may be getting a visit from an agent of the district attorney soon.

On Monday the county commissioners went over a list of delinquent fines and costs that run into thousands of dollars. District Attorney Sherman K. Levine was asked if he would undertake the collection of them and he agreed.

PLENTY OF APPLES

Apples should be on the menus of schools, hospitals and the county home for a little while. Two hundred bushels of apples are at Beaver County Home awaiting transportation to Lawrence county. The county commissioners will send a truck down for them. The apples are government food surplus.

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 30.—Pin-up Queen Betty Grable has selected a lineup of the 12 most virile movie pin-up men.

The blonde beauty started compiling her list while making "Call Me Mister" and finished it the other day in the midst of "Meet Me After the Show."

Betty said she took so long on her list because she just did not want to hurt anyone. Most of her pin-up men have never appeared opposite her on the screen.

"That ought to prove I don't play favorites," laughed the star. "And also, the only reason I left my husband (Harry James) out of the lineup is because someone might say I was unfair."

Betty's lineup

Betty's pin-up men, and reasons for her selection:

Richard Basehart—Quiet sinister expressions.

James Cagney—A grapefruit is better than a kiss.

Jeff Chandler—A strong character.

Dan Dailey—Most rugged song and dance man.

Kirk Douglas—Tough as well as gentle.

Paul Douglas—Brawn and brains.

Clark Gable—Virile voice and manner.

Alan Ladd—A guy who can take care of himself.

Burt Lancaster—Rough, ready and smooth.

Victor Mature—Symbol of strength.

Tyrone Power—Killer in lamb's clothing.

Richard Widmark—Most vicious man on the screen.

WILL FILM FACTS

Warner Brothers is going to show Las Vegas in its true light in scenes for "Painting the Clouds With Sunshine" now being shot in the divorce and gambling mecca.

"True light," the studio bigwigs explained, "means that there will be no sinister blue-jowled characters lurking around in the background."

The gambling scenes will be played straight and show the matter-of-fact way in which the customers go about the business in the swank casinos of Las Vegas.

The picture stars Virginia Mayo, Gene Nelson and Dennis Morgan.

RUN INTO SNAG

Over on the location set at Warner Brothers they have struck a snag in the filming of their big blood-and-thunder western, "Fort Worth." The movie company has been renting a cattle herd from a rancher for stampede scenes in the film.

The rancher laid down the law recently and told the company that his cattle could be run on the double only once a day. More than one fast run a day, the rancher reckoned, shook off too much high priced beef and at current prices he could not afford it.

Until the movie company could run cattle all they were worth all day long.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(INS)—For the first time in New York legal history a witness has been allowed to testify in court to what she saw on a television screen.

Mrs. Sophie Eisenberg of Brooklyn testified yesterday regarding a hockey game fracas at the Ranger-Canadiens meeting at Madison Square Garden March 16, 1947.

Jonas Walvisch, a neighbor of Mrs. Eisenberg, claimed he was injured in the fighting and the woman testified in his behalf after viewing the game on TV.

However, Walvisch lost his $75,000 damage action against the garden, the Canadiens and Emile Bouchard, captain of the Montreal team.

The name Phoebe means "shining."

Dulles Starts Conferences In Japan On Treaty

By BERNARD KAPLAN
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

TOKYO, Jan. 30.—State Department Ambassador John Foster Dulles held an hour and forty-minute conference Monday with Prime Minister Yoshida which a spokesman described as "get acquainted meetings" and following it the pair paid a 25 minute call on Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

The Dulles-Yoshida meeting was the first of several the two men are scheduled to hold during the next two weeks on aspects of the peace treaty for Japan.

A spokesman said there was no attempt at this initial conference "to learn the extent of Mr. Yoshida's agreement" to any of the points discussed.

Just Getting Acquainted

The spokesman said: "This was a get acquainted meeting and there was no attempt to come to any conclusions. Mr. Dulles explained the general philosophy of the peace treaty from the United States point of view." Dulles and Yoshida were smiling as they left the U. S. Ambassador William Sebald's office shortly after 6 p.m. A large crowd of reporters and cameramen, both American and Japanese, were waiting for them, but the two leaders made no statement.

Asked who did the most talking at the meeting, an American spokesman said:

"Both Mr. Dulles and Mr. Yoshida did a lot of talking. I would say it was about equal."

The spokesman refused to go into details of the conversation except to say that Dulles and Yoshida discussed "in general terms" the American seven-point memorandum. He did not say whether the two leaders entered a discussion on the question of Japanese rearmament.

To Present Ideas

Yoshida told Dulles that he would present the specific ideas of his government on the peace treaty at a later conference. The first meeting of the two men was purely verbal. There were no documents exchanged.

The meeting with MacArthur in the latter's office at the Dai Ichi building was described as "a courtesy call to explain the procedures of which Mr. Yoshida and Mr. Dulles have been talking and to discuss briefly where we go from here."

The spokesman said the next talk between Dulles and Yoshida may take place tomorrow, though no date is scheduled. He explained that there will be no formal scheduling of conferences until the prime minister concludes important duties in the Diet Wednesday afternoon.

Earlier in the day, Dulles met for a little more than an hour with British Ambassador Sir Alvaro Gascoigne in what the spokesman called "an extension of talks held with British officials in Washington" in regard to the peace treaty.

Elizabeth Taylor Granted Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Beauteous Elizabeth Taylor, her "storybook" marriage to hotel heir Conrad N. (Nick) Hilton, Jr., formally ended in a tearful divorce hearing, planned to return to work today on her latest movie ironically entitled "Love Is Better Than Ever."

The screen's luscious Liz, who will be 19 Feb. 27, was so upset by the crash of her marriage to the 23-year-old heir that she was hardly able to testify yesterday in Superior Court in Hollywood.

While she sat on the witness stand wiping tears from her eyes, her attorney, with the court's permission, asked leading questions which pictured Hilton as so absorbed with his gambling that even on his honeymoon he spent hours at the gaming tables in France, ignoring his bride. The actress asked no alimony.

After the decree was granted the actress collapsed into the arms of her agent, Jules Goldstone. He led her into the chambers and she stayed there almost an hour. When she left she had regained her composure.

Hilton did not contest the divorce and he was not present at the hearing. It was stated that he was in Phoenix on a business trip.

The reception has been rescheduled for Wednesday evening, February 14, at the church. A special program has been arranged by the committee to welcome the Callandros to the city.

Margaret Henry Home Auxiliary Board Elected

Another important milestone has been passed in the progress of the formation of the recently created Margaret L. Henry Home Auxiliary, namely, the electing of 24 Lawrence County women to serve as the board of directors for this worthy project.

These women were chosen by the nominating committee for their direct show of interest in the well-being of all children who come under the care of the Margaret L. Henry home.

In order that a rotating type of board might be put into operation, eight women were elected for a period of three years; eight for a period of two years; eight for one year.

In the future, eight will be elected each year, thus keeping new interest coming into the organization.

Election was held by ballots, mailed to each of the 1146 members. Help in this tremendous task was given by the New Castle Chapter of the National Secretaries' Association who volunteered to address the envelopes.

Response was most gratifying, showing once more that the women of New Castle and Lawrence County are really determined to lend a helping hand where the Margaret L. Henry home auxiliary is concerned.

This new board will be introduced at the regular meeting of the auxiliary, to be held in the Guild room of Trinity Episcopal church, Monday evening, Feb. 5, at 8 o'clock.

A meeting of this newly elected board of directors is called for Friday, Feb. 2, promptly at 7:30 p.m., in the parlors of the Y.W.C.A. This is an important meeting, as election of officers will be held.

Rest Is Important Says Housewife

It has been said that there are lots and lots of ways for people to try to get some sleep at night. Some folks paint their windows black, others use ear plugs to shut out noises, while others count sheep. All of these are good and they do help some folks get their rest, but Mrs. Frank Jones, 1220 Bell, Montgomery, Alabama, has the best way to get a fine night's rest.

Mrs. Jones who didn't rest well at night before she took HADACOL, is able to say, after taking HADACOL, "I rest wonderfully now!" Mrs. Jones found that HADACOL supplied vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron in which her system was deficient. Here is Mrs. Jones' own statement: "For a long time I had been bothered with indigestion and sour stomach. Food didn't seem to agree with me. I always had that uneasy fullness after I ate. I got to where I didn't want to eat. I had no energy. Felt like I couldn't make it during the day. I also was very nervous. I didn't rest well at night. A friend of mine told me about HADACOL. After the fourth bottle I felt wonderful. My food agreed with me—no more indigestion or sour stomach. My appetite is terrific. I now have lots of energy and my nervousness has gone. I rest wonderfully now. In fact, I feel good all the way 'round. I recommend HADACOL to everybody—it's wonderful."

is in keeping with the national plan of activities that was studied. An evaluation of the council's work of the past year by the national yardstick was made in the afternoon session. Ways of bettering scouting and how to reach more girls were discussed.

National policies and standards were studied at the first meeting on January 13, the purpose of scouting, basic beliefs, ways of work and scout fundamentals being stressed.

The training has helped the council members to understand the need for scouting and the field's immensity. The members believe their training will help them to be of more service to the community, as they have been aided in working with the leaders and scouts.

Las Vegas Not Pleased With Atomic Blasts

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Jan. 30.—(INS)—Residents of Las Vegas braced themselves today for the next of a series of blasts being touched off by the atomic energy commission on its desert testing range 40 miles north of Nevada's gambling mecca.

Indications were, however, that there would be no A-blast today. They were almost jarred out of their beds at daybreak yesterday by the second—and by far the strongest—atomic test explosion in two days.

The AEC, citing security regulations, continued to remain silent on the purpose of the tests, but speculation in Washington pointed to two possible objectives—the development of "atomic super-artillery" for use on the battlefield and the development of a better "trigger" for the A-bomb.

Felt in Several States
The latest blast yesterday rocked all of southern Nevada and parts of Arizona, Utah and California.

The flash that accompanied the blast was seen 300 miles distant in Los Angeles where residents described it as an explosion of a giant flash bulb. Those who saw it in Las Vegas and other southern Nevada communities said the bright white light was followed by a rose-colored glare.

Las Vegas residents reported that an atomic cloud followed the detonation and the AEC confirmed that this was true.
A spokesman for the commission said the explosion was merely "another in a periodic series planned for the government's testing range."
Residents of Las Vegas were far from happy over the "periodic series". They flooded the police station switchboard with calls and some of them, fearing that their homes would be damaged, demanded that something be done about it.

Shakeup Of V.A. At Washington Sought

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—A top-level shakeup of the Veterans Administration in Washington is sought by State Veterans of Foreign Wars Commander Louis G. Feldmann.

During a speech last night to the Greater Harrisburg Joint Veterans Council, Feldmann pointed to GI training school inquiries in eastern Pennsylvania and said present VA policies preclude a sound program.

Feldmann's demand followed disclosure that Gov. John S. Fine has ordered an investigation of the State Board of Private Trade Schools set up in 1946 by the General Assembly.

Police Report Bank Robbery Is Solved

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—(INS)—Police said today they have solved the $1,199 Bank of Ohio Valley robbery but one of the bandits—a woman—and part of the loot were still not accounted for.
A tip from a Pittsburgh friend, according to police detectives, led to the capture of 21-year-old George C. Kindred, Jr., a parolee, yesterday in Chicago. He is being returned to Pittsburgh, and officers said he identified his accomplice in the robbery as Mary Smith, 23. Kindred was quoted by police as saying he spent his share of the $1,199 on clothes and some jewelry.

BANK TELLER IS HELD ON CHARGES OF EMBEZZLING
HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—(INS)—James E. Sourbeer, 24-year-old Harrisburg bank teller, was arrested Monday on charges of embezzling $20,000, most of which financed a "spending spree".

He manipulated inactive bank deposits to obtain the money prior to launching a buying "spree" during which he bought a car, guns, radios, camera equipment and other merchandise, according to District Attorney C. B. Shelley.

Sourbeer was trapped by officials in the Dauphin Deposit bank after they noted an error in his records, Shelley said.

Sourbeer, employed by the bank more than three years, spread the alleged embezzlement over the past year, according to Shelley.

Folks Enjoy Skating
At Mahoning Ice Pond

Rees Flannery, city recreation director, says that skating is in full swing at the frozen pond near Mahoning avenue. He invites skaters to come and get some splendid recreation.

The caretaker, Joe Fracul is busy keeping the ice in good shape for the skaters, who have been having some good recreation during the past few days. Monday, one of them put his skates on when he left Mahoning school, skated up North Cedar street, right to the ice pond. The music dispenser is again in good shape and furnishes music and entertainment for the skaters. The lights for evening skating are in splendid shape, and there is ample space for skating and parking. Heated shelter has been furnished for skaters to get warm and change their shoes.

BRAIN MACHINE
CORVALLIS, Ore. (INS)—A newly designed machine at Corvallis that combines the features of a typewriter and a calculator is believed to be the only one in the nation capable of handling municipal assessments. The machine was designed by Ray Fields, a Corvallis accountant. When its full possibilities are realized, the "brain" will do virtually all the accounting for the fast-growing city, eliminating the possibility of human error.

Scout Engineering
Director Will Confer
With Officials Here

Stanley M. Hawkins, assistant director of engineering service of the Boy Scouts of America, will spend Thursday and Friday of this week in New Castle.

Mr. Hawkins will visit here to confer with executive, officials, and committee members, relative to immediate and long range improvements at Boy Scout camp property.

Ernest D. Hawk, chairman of the camping and activities committee, Mr. Hawkins, and other local officials, will meet Thursday evening at 8:30 p. m. in the scout office, and will travel to the camp Friday in order to survey the needs of the camp.

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary Perry S. Gaston unit 342, had a splendid tureen supper on Monday evening, in the Legion Home, with husbands as guests. The invocation was given by the chaplain, Miss Lillian Hartman.

The door prize was captured by Mrs. Clara Speed. Mrs. Clara Speed, the president, was called on by Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, the chairlady, who gave the address of welcome. Manning Weller gave a short address, was glad to be present, and enjoyed the repast.

Opening the program was Earl Hammond, who gave two splendid tenor solos, "I Am An American," and "You Are A Grand Old Flag," all joining in the chorus. Jimmy Speed gave a good rendition of a piano solo, both were given fine reception.

Major Guy Wadlinger was called on and spoke at length, on the subject, "What Our Nation Needs For Security." He spoke of Russia's rise and expansion during the past few hundred years, and its form of Communism of its finally reaching to part of North America, and the buying of Alaska from Russia. Said he was in favor of Universal Military Training, so that we might be able to meet an eventuality with trained men.

Mrs. Albert Wilkins and her committee, Mrs. Frank Connors, Mrs. Harry Shaffer, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, Mrs. James Cleaver, and Mrs. John Speed were in charge of arrangements.

BRAIN MACHINE
CORVALLIS, Ore. (INS)—A newly designed machine at Corvallis that combines the features of a typewriter and a calculator is believed to be the only one in the nation capable of handling municipal assessments. The machine was designed by Ray Fields, a Corvallis accountant. When its full possibilities are realized, the "brain" will do virtually all the accounting for the fast-growing city, eliminating the possibility of human error.

Places Blame For Epidemic

British Doctor Says Flu Epidemic Due To Protein Lack

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(INS)—A noted Harley street physician today blamed Britain's current influenza epidemic on protein starvation. He told the government "it will have the loss of countless lives on its conscience" unless the protein ration—meat, for instance—is increased.

In a letter to the magazine Medical Press, Dr. Nevil Leyton charged that the reason for the flu epidemic that has already claimed more than a thousand lives in Britain is "poor diet."

"Undoubtedly," he declared, "it lies in the continued very low amount of protein fat available for a great part of the population of this country."

The doctor warned: "If the present protein ration is not stepped up—and stepped up adequately and soon—then the government will have the loss of countless lives on its conscience."

Repeats Warnings
Dr. Leyton said repeated warnings had been given that poor diet would inevitably produce something like the current epidemic which rivals a similar one that afflicted the British Isles after World War I.

But, he added, the government ignored the warnings "so the consequences have now come to pass."

He said that Britons are not starving but added: "Our diet is so unbalanced and so lacking in edible absorbable protein that the anti-body content of our bodies has fallen below the danger point."

The physician concluded: "There is no doubt that the continued lack of fats protein does predispose us to lessening resistance to infectious disease. There is not the slightest doubt at the present time we are protein starved."

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Most of those tall tales you hear about Texas are circulated by Texans themselves. These lusty, slam-banging, generous and generally irresistible people are proud as all get-out of their native state, but they're able to laugh at themselves, too.

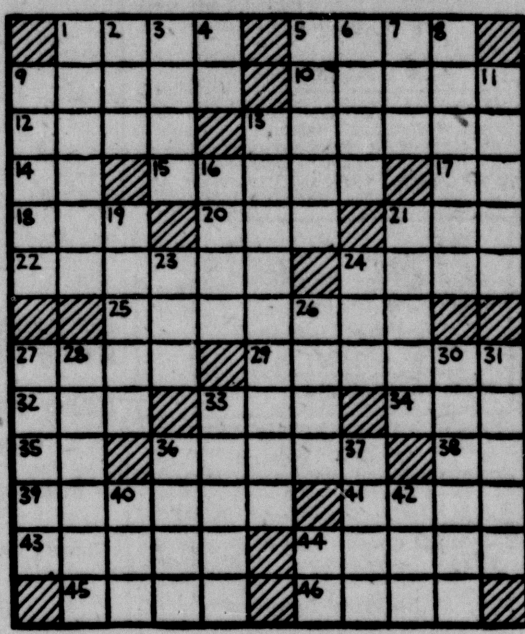

It was Fort Worth's Boyce House who first told the story of the Texas governor who asserted, "I've decided to collect miniatures, and I'm a-goin' to start with Rhode Island." And it was Lampasas's Stanley Walker who quoted the booster from San Antonio to the effect that all Texas needed was more water and a little better class of people. His eastern friend pointed out, "Why man, that's all Hades needs, too."

A home-makers' magazine chronicles the dismay of a man who had just completed a sparkling new sidewalk in front of his suburban castle when a mischievous urchin gleefully stamped across it, leaving a track of his footprints the length of the job. The lady next door clucked disapprovingly at his string of epithets, and added, "I thought you were so fond of little kiddies." "In the abstract, yes," growled the man, "but in the concrete, NO."

No Defender Of Europe Faced Eisenhower's Odds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 — As Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower sets up his unified command for the 12 North Atlantic Treaty nations, the consensus of opinion here among careful followers of the military situation is that while the great World War II leader in the European theater faces the most exasperating task of his career, he is cast in a role that gives him a high probability of success.

He is the man for the job they say, because like all leaders called to the fore by a crisis which unites divergent elements, he has to be a combined diplomat and general. Some already are comparing him with the Duke of Wellington, because when Wellington faced Napoleon at Waterloo it was a return-to-arms assignment for him, and he had to rally allies who in the peace efforts after Napoleon's original defeat had begun to fight among themselves.

Both men, when called to their supreme assignments already had become living legends. "Can he repeat a success?" they asked on all sides about Wellington. To make the historical parallel all the more striking, Wellington assembled his force at Brussels, exactly the same place where the delegates of the Atlantic nations summoned Eisenhower.

Hardest Kind of Job
Leaders of the assorted forces against a great external threat have the hardest kind of job, but it has been the verdict of history that they have almost invariably been successful in defending Europe against invading hordes.

A good portion of the 15 decisive battles of the world selected by Sir Edward S. Creasy, military historian, have been fought under precisely those circumstances. At the last moment a leader was called to the helm of disorganized and ill-prepared European forces.

Wellington is just one example. Another was the Italian general, Aetius, who was hastily put in charge of combined European armies against Attila, who led his savage Huns out of the area of present-day Russia.

In the best movie thriller fashion, Aetius caught up with Attila as he was about to crush in the gates of Orleans, France, and forced him to do battle at Chalons. More than 150,000 men died in one of the bloodiest and most crucial battles of history. It gave European civilization a new lease on life in 451 A.D.

Later it was Emperor Charlemagne who fused the wrangling elements of Europe into a defense against the Avars, also Hunnish invaders.

Not All From Russia
Not all the threats have come from the direction of Russia, but the pattern has been the same. Always it called for the Europeans to lay aside private quarrels, toughen themselves, make up for much lost time, find a great leader, and fight off big odds.

Except for Waterloo, the allies in all these fights were heavily outnumbered. However, Eisenhower, with his immediate goal the amalgamation of a force of 50 divisions to match an estimated 30 Russian divisions in East Germany, 145 divisions in the Soviet Union itself, and 60 Eastern European satellite divisions, faces numerical odds greater than those of most of his predecessors as defenders of Europe.

Military tacticians have been doing some figuring on that also, and they conclude that the army with the smaller numbers often wins, but it is risky indeed to count on success if the foe out-numbers you more than two and a half to one.

Maj. Robert B. Riggs of the Army General Staff corps has laboriously analyzed many battles, and finds that four of the 15 decisive battles of the world were won by the numerically inferior armies.

The Greeks won at Marathon and Alexander the Great routed Darius in battles when they were outnumbered 9-1, while a modern battle of note is Field Marshal Paul von Hindenburg's victory at Tannenberg in 1914, when with 250,000 Germans he defeated two Russian armies comprising more than 500,000.

Major Riggs' verdict is that the victory usually has depended primarily on the human factor; that is, the skill of the leader, and the training, discipline and morale of the troops.

Eisenhower's brothers in arms here say that he faces one of the supreme military tasks in history, both in marshaling his army and instilling in it the morale and training needed. However, they also seem to be unanimous that if anyone can do it, like is the man.

Wesley Church Will Participate In Methodist Advance

Officials and congregation of the Wesley Methodist church, West Washington street, are co-operating in the United Evangelistic Advance of the Erie Conference. This conference-wide activity which will be carried on simultaneously in over 200 Methodist churches in northwestern Pennsylvania and south western New York, is under the general chairmanship of Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke of Pittsburgh.

The week of February 4 to 11 has been set aside in all the participating churches for special visitation evangelism and preaching services. It is anticipated that many will be brought into Christian fellowship through these special services.

Rev. E. F. Spring, church pastor, has received word that Rev. Joseph P. DeBardi has been assigned to assist him and the members of the Wesley church in this movement. Rev. DeBardi is pastor of the Drummond Chapel Methodist church in Morgantown, W. Va.

Local church committees at Wesley are busy preparing lists of prospects for church membership, and plans are under way for visits to these people. Special preaching services will be held in the Wesley church beginning Sunday, Feb. 4 at which time, Rev. DeBardi will be the speaker.

SUBMITS HUGE BUDGET

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 30—(INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey submitted a record-smashing $938,940,760 state budget to the New York legislature today but made no request for new or increased taxes.

The new budget—geared to the state's program to meet the National defense emergency—is nearly two million dollars higher than the record 1949 budget and nearly 69 million dollars higher than the current one.
